

Excerpts from Thank-You Letters of 2021 Scholarship Students

S.K., University of California at Berkeley. "I would like to express my gratitude to the committee for their generous support. This Scholarship is deeply appreciated and will support me as I continue my educational endeavors."

C.P., Vanderbilt University. "I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all of you for your generosity. My SBS scholarships gives me the opportunity to focus exclusively on my studies during this busy year."

G.M., Loyola Marymount University. "Thank you so tremendously much for offering me a Munz Scholarships. I can't tell you how much it means to receive this support, and how much more I'll be able to accomplish with it."

P.Z., Boston College. "Thank you once again for this generous award and recognition."

C.L., California College of Arts and Crafts. "Thank you for awarding me this scholarship. It will greatly help me in pursuing my degree and building my future."

T.P., Indiana University Bloomington. "I thank you deeply for this financial award to help with the pursuit of my graduate studies."

L.C., Saint Mary's College of California. "Thank you so much for the scholarship! It makes the world of difference in helping my family out financially."

T.C., Chico State University. "I am very honored to receive the general scholarship you have awarded me! Thank you so much for your consideration and selecting me, as this will open many doors for my future."

S.E., University of California, Berkeley. "am extremely grateful for the support that I am receiving from the Swiss Benevolent Society of San Francisco."

P.Z., Boston College: "I just want to extend my appreciation to everyone at the Swiss Benevolent Society who supports this scholarship program. I will be studying Psychology and pursue classes in German language studies."

C.S., Middlebury Institute for International Studies: "Thank you again for your scholarship! I have started graduate studies in Monterey and have been learning a lot about language learning. One of my classmates is a fellow Swiss citizen, so in class we'll sometimes speak Swiss German and talk about our favorite foods and regions in Switzerland!"

S.S., Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo: "Thank you all so much for choosing to award me the Munz scholarship. My parents and I really appreciate your contribution to my education expenses. It feels very rewarding to have your support for my studies in biology."

Excerpts from Thank-You Letters of 2022 Scholarship Students

K.L., Seattle University: “I would like to thank you for your financial support through my undergraduate degree. With your support I was able to graduate from Seattle University in Civil Engineering and I will soon begin my professional career.”

F.R., UC San Francisco: “Thank you so much for your generous scholarship as well as the invitation to your dinner. I felt extremely welcomed and greatly enjoyed the evening meeting the wonderful members of your community.”

G.M., Loyola Marymount University: “Thank you Swiss Benevolent Society of San Francisco so much for the scholarship. I appreciate it immensely.”

P.Z., Boston College: “Thank you once again for this very generous award and recognition, I am extremely grateful.”

C.L., California College of the Arts: “Thank you for awarding me your scholarship! I am extremely grateful and excited to finish up the last year of my undergraduate degree.”

T.P., Indiana University: “I am delighted to again be a recipient of a scholarship from the Swiss Benevolent Society of San Francisco this year.”

L.C., Saint Mary’s College of California: “Thank you so much for giving me the scholarship, I am beyond grateful to be able to receive it.”

C.P., Vanderbilt University: “Thank you once again for your continued generosity.”

M.C., UC Berkeley: “I am so grateful to have received a scholarship from your organization.”